

Abundance

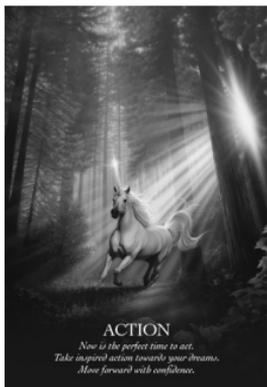

*Enjoy the bounty of life.
Your supply is unlimited.
Blessings are coming to you.*

The unicorns bring you great blessings of abundance and invite you to open your arms wide to receive it all. They remind you that you live in a world of plenty. All of the prosperity you have ever dreamed of or desired is right here for you, now. The resources you ask for are here in energetic form, waiting for you to allow them to manifest in your world. Dare to believe, and be open to receiving in unexpected ways.

This rainbow unicorn calls on you to tear down the illusion of scarcity and know that you are an infinite being, receiving from an infinite source, in infinite ways. There is no such thing as 'too much' to the Universe. It is not greedy, selfish or unspiritual to want a prosperous life full of riches and blessings. You do not help anyone else to have more by blocking your flow and having less yourself.

The Universe is constantly expanding and creating, and waves of abundance are always flowing in your direction. When you are fully aligned with the Divine, your prosperity grows and flows unchecked too. You are of greater service to the world when you are living in a state of abundance, freedom and joy than when you are worrying about paying your bills. Live from this knowing today and let yourself receive.

Feel the joy and positive expectation that comes with knowing abundance of all kinds is already here and more is on its way. Raise your thoughts, feelings and energy into alignment with plenty, give thanks for your wealth in advance, take aligned action when guided to, and invite your bounty to pour in.

Action

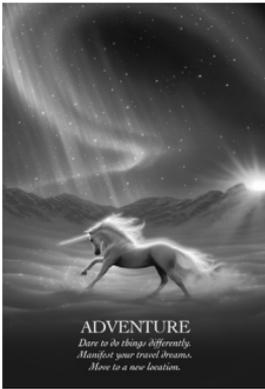

*Now is the perfect time to act.
Take inspired action towards your dreams.
Move forward with confidence.*

You have prepared, trained and done the inner work to be ready for this opportunity. The pieces are lined up. The timing is perfect. All that it requires is for you to take action.

Have unwavering belief in yourself and take the next steps. You already have everything within you that you need to do this. You may feel some resistance or hesitation, but this is not the time for doubt or procrastination. You are ready.

Listen to your courageous heart, not your fearful ego. Ignore any excuses about why you can't. Remember, you are powerful, capable and the entire Universe is on your side. Call on the unicorns to keep you moving forward and to remind you that on the other side of this action is the success you desire.

The unicorns are beside you, urging you forward, encouraging you to take action on your dreams without further delay.

Adventure

*Dare to do things differently.
Manifest your travel dreams.
Move to a new location.*

This unicorn is calling you to embark on an adventure, explore the world or enjoy new experiences. Maybe you dream of moving to another state or country to start afresh in a new landscape? Perhaps you are feeling bored and stifled, and know there is more to life than the rut you have been stuck in. Whether you fly to the other side of the world, move to a new city or simply get away for a weekend, it's time to go on a journey.

Release the belief that you need lots of money upfront before you can even start thinking about this. Ask the unicorns for help to bring in all of the resources and opportunities required to make your travel dream a reality.

Start researching your dream locations or homes now, as if you already have the funds, time and resources to support you. Believe anything is possible. You never know, you might come across a house-sitting opportunity, a house swap or an out-of-the-box answer to your travel dreams.

Give yourself permission to hold a big vision and enjoy the process of manifesting your journey.

Anger

*Safely express your anger.
Use anger as a positive force.
Honour all of your emotions as sacred.*

You may feel angry at yourself, another person or with a situation in your life, but feel it is somehow unspiritual to express your rage. This fire unicorn is charging in to assure you that anger is not a 'negative' energy. It has as much purpose and value as kindness or love.

Feeling or expressing anger is not unspiritual. It is sacred to honour your emotions and anger can be the fire you need to pull you out of a swamp of lethargy, hopelessness or doubt. Anger can be the force that helps you overcome fear and take action. It can be the surge of power you need to finally set a boundary and say no to someone or something that is disempowering you. Anger can also be the key to unlocking deeper fears and being free of the wounds that lie beneath them.

Anger is only dangerous when you repress or deny it. Just like a volcanic lava flow, if it builds up, it can be a destructive force when it finally erupts. This fire unicorn wants you to acknowledge your anger. Get to the heart of what is upsetting you and let yourself be angry. Feel it and revel in its messy beauty. Dance, stomp and roar from your anger. Pummel the cushions. Scream out all of your fury.

Give yourself permission to fully feel, unleash and release your anger. So long as you are not misdirecting your anger at anyone else it can be empowering. Use it to fill yourself with life force and to move forward out of denial and repression. There is wildness and beauty in your anger and it can be such a gift when you see it as sacred.
